Services for people of Cumbria cumbria.gov.uk/services

Welcome to this half term's 'read all about it' entry.

We have decided to create this newsletter to help your child foster a love of reading. The books selected are a guide from the class teachers. With so many wonderful books to choose, finding a starting can often be difficult. This term's books see adventurous characters diving into fantastic settings and taking on new challenges.

Due to the new government restrictions, Grange library is closed to the public. However, they have a select and collect option where they will select up to 6 books for you based on your preference. To place an order, you can call: 015395 32749.

Mini Rabbit: Not lost by John Bond.

Mini Rabbit is making a cake.
Cake, cake, cake!
But he's run out of berries.
No berries, no cake.
No cake? No way!
So off he goes to look for some... He's not cold, not too small.
And, no, no, definitely NOT LOST...or is he?

Snowy Owls

Tawny Owls

The Tiger who came to tea by Judith Kerr.

The doorbell rings just as Sophie and her mummy are sitting down to tea.
Who could it possibly be?
What they certainly don't expect to see at the door is a big furry, stripy tiger!

Mr. Shaha's Recipes for Wonder by Alom Shaha.

Why does the ...? What is ...? How does the ...? Don't worry if you don't know the answers, you soon will! All you need are a few simple items from your kitchen cupboards - and the power of curiosity! Every child can be a scientist with the help of Mr Shaha and his recipes for wonder. Whether you're a science star or just starting out, it will help you inspire young people to learn.

George's Marvellous Medicine by Roald Dahl.

George Kranky's Grandma is a miserable grouch. George really hates that horrid old witchy woman.
One Saturday morning, George is in charge of giving Grandma her medicine.
So-ho! Ah-ha! Ho-hum! George knows exactly what to do.
A magic medicine it will be. One that will either cure her completely . . . or blow off the top of her head.

Barn Owls

The Girl of Ink & Stars by Kiran Millwood Hargrave.

Isabella Riosse is the daughter of a cartographer who lives on the island of Joya; an isle both steeped in mythology and shrouded in mystery. For the last thirty years, a strict Governor has forbidden the island inhabitants from venturing beyond their small township. Isabella is fascinated with the ancient myths of Joya, which is said to have once floated freely over the seas. Preoccupied with ideas of exploration and inspired by the far-flung places her father once documented, she yearns for adventure. When her best friend Lupe runs away, disappearing into the forbidden forest, Isabella volunteers to bring her back. With only her knowledge of ancient myths and one of her father's maps to guide her, Isabella ventures into the perilous world beyond, where monsters lurk and magical rivers run.

Frostheart by Jamie Littler

Life in the Fira tribe is fairly ordinary by this world's standards; playing football with the other kids, trying not to get eaten by Leviathans, avoiding his grumpy yeti Guardian. Such is the life Ash leads, walled up in the Fira Stronghold, surrounded on all sides by a sea of snow and monsters. Abandoned by his parents as a baby, the only thing Ash has to remember them by is a lullaby that he sings to himself whenever he's lonely. But, after a rescue attempt reveals that Ash also has a taboo power, he joins the crew of the Frostheart to embark on a life of exploration and discovery. But, Ash yearns to find his family, and he hopes the crew will help him with this..
